

Committee

The Wildwater Racing Committee is a subcommittee of the Irish Canoe Union and is responsible for the organisation, development and administration of Wildwater Canoe/Kayak Racing in Ireland.

Committee Standing Orders

The Committee will act in accordance with the "Standing Orders for Committees" of Canoeing Ireland.

Composition

The Committee will have a minimum of five voting members elected at the Annual Committee Meeting and then approved by the Board of Canoeing Ireland, namely a Chairperson, Secretary and three General Officer positions. Furthermore, the committee may co-opt two persons to fulfil specific positions or requirements should the need arise during the committee's tenure and approved by the Board of Canoeing Ireland. Any member of the committee may be assigned more than one of the roles listed below.

Role / Remit

- Production of race rules and fixture list each year for Wildwater racing.
- The organisation of coaching and training sessions for junior and senior squad
- Selection of international teams or the establishment for a selection Committee to do same.
- Promoting the sport of Wildwater Canoe/Kayak Racing.
- To spread Wildwater racing throughout Ireland by encouraging and organising ranking and non-ranking races.
- To encourage a broad base of Wildwater paddlers in Ireland through the development of introductory training courses and specialised training weekends in Wildwater racing.
- To promote and improve the standard of Irish paddlers through international competition at home and abroad.
- To improve our international image by promoting good Irish International Wildwater competition and by sending good standard teams abroad.
- To foster the development of suitable craft and equipment for Wildwater.

Amending the Terms of Reference

The Terms of Reference may be revised by the board of Canoeing Ireland from time to time. The board will consider recommendations from the committee for amendments to these Terms of Reference if the need arises.
